On Friday 8th May, the country will be celebrating the 75th Anniversary of VE day. We would love to see what you are up to at home. Share your photos and videos on Twitter @pagetprimary

Here are some ideas of what you can do at home...

- Dress in red, white and blue clothes.
- Make bunting and colour it red, white and blue,
- Have a picnic in the garden,
- Draw pictures of soldiers,
- Make scones and have a tea party with your toys or the adults in your family.
- Find out about World War 2 and share what you have learnt in a fun and interesting way. It could be a speech, a PowerPoint or a newspaper report.
- A drawing related to the war.
- Make a bravery medal
- Make a soldier out of cardboard
- Make poppies to show we remember the war
- Play some 1940s music and plan a dance for it.

We would love to see them on Twitter!
